ABOUT US

A Spot Fund Company based on crypto trading is a financial entity that facilitates direct investments in cryptocurrencies without using leverage or derivative instruments. Such companies operate on the "spot market," where buyers and sellers exchange digital assets instantly at current market prices.

OUR VISION

Our vision is to revolutionize cryptocurrency trading by providing a secure, transparent, and user-friendly platform for spot trading. We aim to empower individuals and institutions to seamlessly invest in digital assets, fostering financial inclusion and innovation.

TYPES OF TRADING

Cryptocurrency trading is the buying and selling of cryptocurrencies on an exchange. With us, you can trade cryptos by speculating on their price movements via CFDs (contracts for difference).

It is created through mining, which is a process of very complex problems being solved by powerful computers, usually as a reward for making successful cryptocurrency transactions.
